Local Authors' Work Praised

In the current issue of the Theater Magazine considerable prominence is given to two of our local writers—Harry Leon Wilson and Martin A. Flavin.

It is claimed that "Merton of the Movies" is responsible for "a change of spirit, gradual, almost imperceptible, but none the less definite, in the vast output of screen production." The critic further asserts that this masterpiece of modern satire struck home with many of the producers and that there is an ever-growing tendency at present among the film people to laugh at themselves, as witness the latest "elaborate and hilarious film, Hollywood," now being made under the direction of James Cruze.

Martin Flavin's play, "Children of the Moon," is one of the late Broadway successes. Mr. Hornblow, the editor of the Theater Magazine, gently raps the Theater Guild and "all the other theatrical wiseacres who profess to be ever searching the horizon for the long awaited 'great American play'" and stoutly asserts that "Children of the Moon" is a better play and a more humanly interesting play than ninety per cent of the loudly trumpeted hits.

He goes on to say: "The author is new to Broadway, but that he will be a stranger to it no longer goes without saying. He has written a remarkable play, one that no one who lives his emotions stirred in the theater will care to miss. It is not altogether a pleasant theme, dealing as it does with a family taint of insanity and the peril into which a healthy young girl is thrown through the power of suggestion, but it is so expertly done, the dialogue so crisp and natural, the character drawing so masterly, the situations so powerfully dramatic that one forgets the painful nature of the curse in the absorbing interest of the action. The mighty Ibsen himself, whose direct, concise method plainly influenced the author, could hardly have done better by the subject."

Motor Organization Launched on Peninsula

With Supervisor J. L. D. Roberts of Seaside as president, and Major E. Banks-Gyther of this city as secretary, the Motorists' Co-operative Union, with its main base in Monterey, has been organized.

Official garages have already been appointed in several nearby cities. It is planned to enroll 300 garages in California before the organization extends outside of the state. Its program includes privileges for members as follows: Supplies at differential prices, discount on gas and oil, free legal advice, personal accident insurance, fire, theft and accident insurance, hotel and camping information, and an annual surplus cash distribution.

"Pollys" Convene at the County Seat

The Eighth Congressional District Republicans convened in Salinas last Saturday afternoon and organized for the 1924 campaign. A president, first and second vice-presidents, a secretary-treasurer and eight executives are provided, with dues of $100 per member on presidential years and $50 per member in other years. The district comprises the counties of San Mateo, Santa Cruz, Santa Clara, San Benito, Monterey, San Luis Obispo, Ventura and Santa Barbara. The next meeting is scheduled for Lincoln's birthday at Santa Barbara.

Mrs. T. A. Towner of Pacific Grove will give a very interesting address in the Sunday school room of Carmel church at 3 p. m., Wednesday, October 24. All are cordially invited.

Carmel Dream House

By Theodora Gay Planner

Far beyond the windows wide
Sends the rise and fall of tide
Upon a rocky shore,
Where long ago I lived amidst
Life's rarest joys—and now no more—
Save ever-present golden dreams,
In silent-flowing, golden streams.
Neath lofty crag and splendid hill,
Where the quail and whip-poor-will
Build their nests,
The autumn sun sinks o'er the bay,
The winding trail, the sand dunes' crests—
In ever-present golden dreams,
In silent-flowing golden streams.
Before the burning embers bright,
Together there where hearts unite
I harken to the songs of dusk
And whispering winds as darkness lowers—
In faint and misty golden dreams,
In softly-flowing golden streams.

Beloved Rector Passes Beyond

Rev. Francis G. Williams, for several years pastor of All Saints' Episcopal Church here, died suddenly while conversing with his wife in a Pacific Grove sanatorium Wednesday afternoon. He had been ill for some time, but no one thought that death was so near. Up to a very short time ago he remained steadily and manfully with his duties. It was not until he took to his bed that he gave up his labors in aid for the little church.

Mr. Williams was born in Westport, Conn., 59 years ago. He was a graduate of Trinity with the class of 1889, and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa fraternity. He had been in the ministry 31 years.

Mr. Williams was a trustee of the local public school when he died. The school in which Mr. Williams was held was shown by the closing of Carmel's business places during the funeral services.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. George M. Dorwart of this city, were held yesterday afternoon. A large number of friends of the deceased and of the family were in attendance.

Mr. Williams is survived by a wife and three sons, and an only brother, Arthur R. Williams of the faculty of University of California, all of whom are here at present.

The remains are to be cremated at Cypress Lawn cemetery today.

Carmel Artist Exhibits in Denver

A recent issue of the Denver News will interest local artists and others: "An exhibit of unique paintings has been placed in the art store of Cyrus Boutwell by Mrs. Roberta Balfour Thudichum, who as Roberta Balfour was dramatic editor of the Denver Times twenty years ago and widely known in Denver as a newspaper writer. The exhibit is of twenty paintings done by her exclusively with a palette knife."

Local Building and Sales Active

Carmel contractors and realty dealers continue to report a large volume of new and completed contracts and the sale of many lots and houses. The property transactions, published from week to week in this journal, are also an indication of Carmel's growth.

Sales reported by the Carmel Realty Company include:

Lots near Mission Point to Mrs. Phil K. Gordon; three lots at Dolores and Thirteenth to Dr. Arthur T. McGinty of San Jose; two lots at Twelfth and San Antonio to Walter Trinker of San Jose; the Gray Goose cottage to Mrs. L. E. McCormack of Los Angeles; the Canary Cottage to Mrs. M. A. Monett of Berkeley.

Sales reported by Arthur Shand are twenty lots in Carmel City to Carl Huseman by Percy Parkes; Bremer cottage at Second and Dolores to Mrs. Mary G. Lansdale of San Mateo, who is occupying it.

Work completed and under way by local contractors is as follows:

Oriental Shop addition, Carmel Weavers addition and alteration and home for Mrs. A. Mechenstock of San Jose, by contractor L. E. Gottfried. Cottage on Dolores street for Miss Stella J. Guichard, by contractor S. J. Miller. Large residence for Dr. George J. Taylor on Camino Real, by George Lang of Monterey. Large residence and garage on Carmelo street for Mrs. Mary C. Chapin of San Francisco; two-story residence on Dolores street for W. J. Osterman of San Jose; residence and garage for Mrs. J. E. Markley of San Jose, Dolores and Second; alterations on the Bradshaw house at Monte Verde and Sixth, by Percy Parkes.

YES, WE HAVE NO MATCHES

This actually happened in Carmel. Two of our Scotch citizens were walking down Ocean avenue when one of them decided to light his pipe. He discovered he had no match, and asked his friend for one—and got it. Then he found his pipe was empty and that he had no tobacco. He returned the pipe to his pocket. His friend said: "Give me the match."

Holman's Carmel store is now in charge of R. E. Bunham. Mr. and Mrs. Bunham have taken the Parker cottage on Dolores street.

Grand Revel for Our Music Lovers

Selby C. Oppenheimer, whose annual activities are always the index to the musical season's importance, has, as usual, mapped out a most comprehensive program for the fall, winter and spring of 1923-24 in San Francisco.

Oppenheimer has grouped the artists and attractions that he has booked into three divisions: A series of special events, which will be held in the Exposition Auditorium and in various theaters and halls; a special series of popular-priced concerts in the Columbia Theatre on Sunday afternoons; and the Alice Seckels' "Matinee Musicales" series, in the ballroom of the St. Francis hotel.

Mary Garden, whose only appearance in Northern California will be in the Exposition Auditorium tomorrow afternoon, will mark the season's first great attraction. These will include: Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, the world's greatest contralto, in January; John Philip Sousa and his famous band of 100 at the Exposition Auditorium on January 4, 5 and 6; Anna Pavlova and her Ballet Russe, which includes Violette, Novikoff and 100 participants, in the Curran Theatre for the entire week beginning January 14, 1924; de Pachmann, the unique and venerable pianist, at the Auditorium on February 7; Paderevski, the colossal giant of the keyboard, in February; a limited engagement by the Chicago Civic Opera Company in March, a single recital by Chaliapin in March, and recitals by Amelita Galli-Curci in April.

At the Columbia Theatre on Sunday afternoons, many of the world's foremost artists will appear at prices ranging from fifty cents to two dollars. Tito Schipa, the leading tenor of the Chicago Opera, comes first, giving recitals on November 4 and 11. On November 18 Efrim Zimbalist, the Russian violinist, will be the attraction. On November 25 Josef Lhevinne, eminent Russian pianist, plays his program. A joint recital by Arthur Rubinstein, Russian pianist, and his violinistic confrere, Paul Kochanski, is announced for Sunday afternoon, December 9. Anna Case sings on December 16. Following the holiday season, in rapid succession in this series, will be presented the popular baritone, Emilio de Gogorza; the Isadora Duncan Dancers—"the world's most beautiful dancing trio," and Max Rabinowitch, pianist; Josef Schwarz, the European operatic and recital baritone; a joint recital by Harold Bauer, pianist, and Pablo Casals, cellist; the first appearance here in recital of Jeanne Gordon, the Metropolitan's newest contralto; recitals by Ossip Gabrilowitch, pianist and director of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra; and other equally-famous stars.

Old Resident to Make Home in Oakland

Miss Effie A. McLean, who, for the last nine years has made her home in Carmel, is leaving this week for Oakland, where she will probably reside hereafter. During this stretch of years Miss McLean has made a host of friends here, who will regret her departure.

Time and again Miss McLean has been seen on the stage of the Forest Theater and at Arts and Crafts Hall. No matter what the part she enacted, she always "made good," giving a conscientious and studied interpretation of the part. For seven years she took a leading part in one or both summer plays in the Forest Theater.

She will be missed here. It is certain, however, that should she be needed for some particular dramatic work here, she will come a-ruining.

Among the San Joseans who were last week-end visitors here were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Leland, Miss Irene Alexander, Dr. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Oldbury, Mrs. Fay Lewis, Mr. George Stanley and Mr. Henry Saal.

ORDINANCE NO. 53

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT AND MAINTENANCE OF A PUBLIC LIBRARY WITHIN THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA. THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea do ordain as follows, to-wit:

Section 1. A public library is hereby established in and for said City of Carmel-by-the-Sea.

Section 2. Said public library shall be established, conducted, managed, controlled and maintained pursuant to the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California entitled: "An Act to provide for the establishment and maintenance of public libraries within municipalities," approved March 23, 1901, and the amendments of said Act.

Section 3. Said public library shall be managed by a board designated as the Board of Library Trustees, consisting of five (5) members to be appointed by the President of the Board of Trustees of said municipality, by and with the consent of said legislative body of said city. Such Trustees shall severally hold office for three years, serving without compensation; provided, that the members of the first board appointed shall so classify themselves by lot that one of their number shall go out of office at the end of the current fiscal year, to-wit, on the 31st day of December, 1923, two at the end of one year thereafter and two at the end of two years thereafter. Men and women shall be equally eligible to such appointment, and vacancies shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term in the same manner.

Section 4. Said Board of Library Trustees shall meet at least once a month at such times and places as it may fix by resolution. Special meetings may be called at any time by three trustees by written notice served upon each member at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting. A majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Such Board shall appoint one of their number president, who shall serve for one year and until his successor is appointed, and in his absence shall select a president pro tem. Such Board shall cause a proper record of its proceedings to be kept.

Section 5. Said Board of Library Trustees shall have power:

(First). To manage, control and administer any library building or library property which is now owned or may hereafter be acquired by said city; to make and enforce all rules, regulations and by-laws necessary for the administration, government and protection of the library under its management and all property belonging thereto.

(Second). To administer any trust hereafter declared or created for such library and receive any gift, devise or bequest and hold in trust, or otherwise, property situated in this state or elsewhere, and, when not otherwise provided, dispose of the same for the benefit of such library.

(Third). To prescribe the duties and powers of the librarian, secretary and other officers and employees of such library; to determine the number of, and appoint, all such officers and employees and fix their compensation, which said officers and employees shall hold their offices or positions at the pleasure of said Board.

(Fourth). To purchase necessary books, journals, publications and other personal property.

(Fifth). To purchase such property and erect and equip such building or buildings, room or rooms, as may be necessary when in their judgment a suitable building or portion thereof has not been provided by the legislative body of the municipality for such library.

(Sixth). To require the Secretary of State and other state officials to furnish such library with copies of any and all reports, laws and other publications of the state, not otherwise disposed of by law.

(Seventh). To borrow books from, lend books to, and exchange the same with other libraries, and to allow non-residents to borrow books, upon such conditions as they may prescribe.

(Eighth). To do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this Ordinance.

(Ninth). Said Board of Library Trustees shall, on or before the last day of July in each year, make a report to the Board of Trustees of said city, giving the condition of the library on the 30th day of June preceding, together with a statement of its proceedings for the year then ended, and forward a copy thereof to the State Library at Sacramento.

Section 6. The Board of Trustees of said City of Carmel-by-the-Sea shall, in making the annual tax levy, and as a part thereof, the maintenance of said library not being otherwise provided for, levy a tax for the purpose of maintaining the said library and purchasing property necessary therefor, which tax shall be in addition to other taxes the levy of which is permitted in the municipality, provided, that after two years from the establishment of said library, where a maintenance corresponding thereto has not been otherwise provided, such tax levy shall not exceed three mills upon the dollar of assessed valuation.

Section 7. The revenue derived from said tax, together with all money acquired by gift, devise, bequest or otherwise, for the purposes of the library, shall be apportioned to a fund to be designated the Library Fund, and be applied to the purposes herein authorized. If such payment into the treasury should be inconsistent with the conditions or terms of any such gift, devise or bequest, the Board of Library Trustees shall provide for the safety and preservation of the same and the application thereof to the use of the library, in accordance with the terms and conditions of such gift, devise or bequest; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to the construction and initial equipment of the Ralph Chandler Harrison Memorial Library building, the property to be used for which purpose has heretofore been devised and bequeathed to the Trustees of said city by the last will and testament of Ella Reid Harrison, deceased. Payments from said Library Fund shall be made upon warrants issued after due audit by, and order from, the Library Trustees, which warrant shall be signed by the President and Secretary of said Board of Library Trustees.

The Treasurer of the municipality shall pay such warrants without any further order or warrant from any other authority.

Section 8. Said library hereby established under this ordinance and said Act of the Legislature of the State of California shall be forever free to the inhabitants and non-resident tax payers of said municipality, subject always to such rules, regulations and by-laws as may be made by said Board of Library Trustees, and provided, that for violations of the same a person may be fined or excluded from the privileges of the library.

Section 9. Said Board of Library Trustees and the legislative bodies of neighboring municipalities or board of supervisors of the counties in which public libraries are situated may contract for lending books of such library to residents of such counties or neighboring municipalities upon a reasonable compensation to be paid by such counties or neighboring municipalities.

Section 10. The title to all property acquired for the purposes of said library, when not inconsistent with its terms of acquisition, or otherwise designated, shall vest in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, and in the name of said municipal corporation may be sued for, or defended by action at law, or otherwise.

Section 11. The repeal of this ordinance shall in no wise affect the existence and maintenance of said Ralph Chandler Harrison Memorial Library, the continued existence and maintenance of which, in the event of the repeal hereof, shall be provided for by ordinance of said municipality, save and except that such ordinance shall not be formulated or passed pursuant to the provisions of said Act of the Legislature of the State of California entitled: "An act to provide for the establishment and maintenance of public libraries within municipalities," approved March 23, 1901, or to the amendments of said act.

Section 12. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 13. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force thirty days from and after its final passage and approval.

A few minutes on the phone and week's washing is out of the way.

That's our family washing service.

Instead of the long tedious hours spent at back-breaking work, or in supervising a laundress, you will have the leisure you've always wanted.

All you have to do is to gather up everything that needs washing—including blankets, curtains, wash-rugs—and turn them over to our route man.

Promptly, on a specified day, your goods will be returned to you sweet and clean, laundered the way you would have it done—your garments and linen carefully folded, ready to use or put away.

You'll find this service most reasonable, especially when you consider the time and worry it saves you.

Phone 89 today and let us explain it more fully.

Notice of Administrator's Sale of Real Property

In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Monterey.

In the matter of the Estate of Elizabeth A. Foster, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of Sections 1517 and 1536 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, authorizing administrators to sell real estate when such sale is for the advantage, benefit and best interests of the estate and those interested therein, and when such sale is necessary to pay the debts outstanding against the decedent, and the debts, expenses and charges of administration, the undersigned, J. A. Cornett, the Administrator of the Estate of Elizabeth A. Foster, deceased, will sell at private sale to the highest bidder, for cash, in lawful money of the United States of America, upon the terms and conditions hereinafter mentioned and subject to confirmation by said Superior Court, on or after Tuesday, the 23rd day of October, A. D. 1923, all the right, title, interest and estate of said decedent at the time of her death, in the real property hereinafter described, and all the right, title and interest that the said estate has, by operation of law or otherwise, acquired, other than or in addition to that of said decedent at the time of her death, in and to the following described real property:

All those certain lots, pieces or parcels of land, situated, lying and being in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, County of Monterey, State of California, to-wit:

Daughter of Summer Visitors Passes Away

Jean Elizabeth Craver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Craver of Stockton, died on October 14th in Lodi, a little over three years old. Jean had spent all of her few summers in Carmel, where her parents have a home at Sixth and Santa Fe. Mrs. A. H. Tyler of this city, sister of the deceased, was in attendance at the funeral, which was largely attended. There was a wealth of floral offerings.

Carmel, New Jersey. It sounds strange, does it not? There was a week from that place. Originally the town, which was settled about forty years ago by a colony of Russians, was named Beaver Dam. A religious philanthropist came along a little later and changed the name.

Captain William L. Maxwell has been in San Francisco all week upon attendance at the American Legion convention.

Humane Societies Will Consolidate

A special meeting of the Carmel Humane Society was held Wednesday, the purpose being to take action on the proposition to unite with the Monterey unit. The meeting voted unanimously for consolidation. Only by this means can the Carmel unit take part in the establishment of a shelter for animals, soon to be undertaken in Monterey, the site for which has been chosen.

The consolidation action does not lessen the independence of either society. They will retain their own members and officers.

The Monterey Peninsula Planning Conference has been organized, with Dr. Alfred E. Burton of this city as president, Dr. J. P. Sandholdt of Monterey vice-president, Reeve Conover of Pacific Grove second vice president. The executive committee is made up of the foregoing and Supervisor J. L. D. Roberts.

Gas on Stomach May Cause Appendicitis

Constant gas causes inflammation which may involve the appendix. Simple glycerine, buckthorn bark, etc., as mixed in Adlerika helps any case gas on the stomach in TEN minutes. Most medicines act only on lower bowel but Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removes all gas and poisons. Excellent for obstinate constipation and to guard against appendicitis. Words
Without Meaning—

For example—The word
"Exclusive."

It means nothing unless backed by a product whose name means a whole lot. There are dozens of makes of men's clothing for which we prefer that some other store claim exclusive control in this city. But for Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes we are not only glad but proud to claim exclusive representation.

A variety of models—such as THE SAXON, in patterns that are "exclusive" in the sense that they appeal to the man with discriminating taste.
